- Sit Down You're Rocking the Boat

Dress code and other details:

- Choir t-shirts and ideally block colours that fit with our logo eg blue, pink, purple, white
- Music neatly in a folder please, a choir folder or something else - doesn't matter what colour but ideally block colour and fitting with our logo colours
- Just us performing at this one (ie it's not a collaboration with Beckenham Acappella or Crib Notes Choir this time)

On the day we will congregate and find somewhere to warm up nearby (either the Great Southern or near there). Please join the Events chat within Palace Acappella community on WhatsApp and I'll keep you updated there. If you get stuck at all or have questions please post them in that group on the day so someone who knows the answer can respond quickly.

Usually quite a big event, family friendly, lots of food stalls etc. Suggestion to go for a drink after in the Gipsy Hill Taproom.
